

STATE OF ILLINOIS
88TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
TRANSCRIPTION DEBATE

106th Legislative Day

March 24, 1994

Speaker McPike: "The House will come to order. The Chaplain for today is the Reverend Gary McCants of the Allen Chapel African-Methodist Episcopal Church in Alton, Illinois. All guests in the gallery may wish to rise for the invocation."

Reverend Gary McCants: "In Isaiah, Chapter 40, Verse Eight, it reads 'The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of God shall stand forever.' May we pray. Oh God of the universe, we invoke Your divine presence in this Assembly. We give thanks as we seek peace of mind in our deliberations. On so many occasions we become acutely aware that we are expendable but You are infinite in Your love and Your care for us. As we seek to serve Your people here, our hearts are with the family and the people of Mexico in the tragic death of Luis Donaldo Colosio, for those who perished and were injured in North Carolina, fire looms in New Jersey and the threat of war in the Far East all remind us that we must work while it's day for when the night comes no man can work. Weeping endures for a night, but certainly joy comes in the morning. We thank You for Your divine presence and for Your word that lasts always, and may we give You thanks and joy, and we ask these blessings in Thy dear Sons' name, Amen."

Speaker McPike: "We'll be led by...in the pledge by Representative Parcels."

Parcels - et al: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Speaker McPike: "Roll Call for Attendance. Representative Kubik."

Kubik: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Let the record reflect that Representative Daniels and Representative Biggins are excused today."

Speaker McPike: "Representative Currie."

Currie: "Thank you, Speaker. Representative Kaszak is excused today because of a death in the family. Please let the record reflect that."

Speaker McPike: "Take the record, Mr. Clerk. A quorum called, there's 114 present, four excused; a quorum is present, the House is ready to do its business. Will the Body give the Chair the attention, please. Representative Curran, in the Chair."

Curran: "Ladies and Gentlemen, I have the very great pleasure to be here with Representative Parke and introduce to you a friend of many of us in this room and a friend of the United States in a troubled portion of the world. You are going to hear from Director General Doctor Raymond Woo from Taiwan, a very good friend of this nation and a very good friend of many of the people in this room. Director General Doctor Raymond Woo."

Raymond Woo: "Thank you, Representative Curran, for your fine and kind introduction. It's indeed a great honor and pleasure for me to be invited to speak before the distinguished Members of the Illinois House of Representatives. First of all, I would like to extend to each and every one of you here the warmest greetings and best wishes from the 21 million people living in Taiwan, the Republic of China. Since assuming my current post in Chicago six months ago, I have found myself constantly blessed and showered by a rich reservoir of friendship and good will by the leaders and people of the great State of Illinois. Today is my second day of visit to this famous City of Springfield, the land and home of President Abraham Lincoln, one of the greatest human beings that ever lived on the face of this earth. I have been myself an great admirer and student of President Lincoln's life and work ever since I was in high school, so this visit of mine is like a dream come true to me. During recent years as the whole world is undergoing fundamental transformation following the demise of the former Soviet Union and the end to the Cold War, we in the Republic of China and Taiwan have made important progress in political democratization, economic liberalization, social pluralization, as well as diplomatic pragmatization. Internationally we have been playing an active and constructive role by providing humanitarian aid, economic cooperation and tactical assistance to many needy countries around the globe. For instance, we have made donations to seven midwestern states of the United States, including Illinois, to help with their respective flood relief efforts last year. Now, based on the common aspiration of the 21 million people in Taiwan, we wish to seek proper recognition from, and make more contribution to, the world community by joining in major international organizations, such as GATT and the United Nations. I would like to take this opportunity to express on behalf of our people in Taiwan, the Republic China, our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Speaker Madigan and all the Members of this House of Representatives for your strong support for our bid to rejoin the United Nations by passing a Resolution on March 2nd this year. We, in the Republic of China, will forever remember and treasure your fine gesture of friendship. Thank you again for your warm welcome and God bless the United States; God bless the State of Illinois. Thank you."

Speaker McPike: "Agreed Resolutions."
